

It's Prom season in Aruba!

In less than two weeks the Key Club of Colegio Arubano, the youth division of the Aruba Kiwanis Club will hold their annual high school prom. This is the opportunity for all the young ladies of colegio to dress up and look glamorous, and in the organizing committee held a press conference in the headquarters of SETAR, the national telecommunications to impart some details of the coming event for the local media. Ghislane Koiman accompanied Angelique Bagheri, Prom Committee Chairman for Public Relations and Jonathan Gomes, Decorating Committee Chairman in announcing the talent line up and venue for the gala occasion.

The prom will be held in the Tropicana showroom of the Royal Cabana Casino on Thursday, June 23rd beginning at 8 pm and ending at 2pm. A line-up of Aruba's top bands including Mega, Honeypot and Exide will provide the entertainment and dancing music, and tickets cost 20 florins for individuals and 30 florins for couples. Tickets are available for sale at Trash by Ronchi Design House, Mona Lisa, and Ladies Choice, so girls can buy their dress, jewelry, and shoes the same time as they buy their tickets! Tickets are also available at the Non-Stop CD Shop and from Key Club members at the Colegio Arubano. The organizing committee thanked Valero Refinery Aruba for their sponsorship of the prom and SETAR, N.V. for providing a venue for the announcement.
